

DESONA

THE GREY IN WHITE

Got to Let It Go

hey all my people out there are you ready to vent your spleen now things are changing and getting different I'll tell you how it's meant to be so put your hands up in the air and jump around like you don't care we're getting out of control and we're leaving everything behind and we leave everything behind (2x) getting out of control leave everything behind and now you got to let it go (got to let it go you got to let it go)... let it go just Jump up and move you feet right to our flow

just Jump up and scream like you never screamed before

have you listened to what I've said we want to see how you run in circles we just want to shake you up let's burn this place down to the ground till there's nothing left around let's get loud and crazy and let's party to the sound let's just party to the sound (2x) c'mon get loud and crazy c'mon get loud

THE GREY IN WHITE

Eyes to See the work you do in a lifetime makes impacts unforeseen don't believe your delusion of living self-contained you've got to see that the trials of life aren't as easy as they seem you give me eyes to see you give me air to breath you give me everything I need you give me a voice I speak just be aware of your deeds know what you can reach a hint can turn into something bigger you will see light up your mind unshackle your ideas illuminate the scene let it rise inside you and open up your mind

Obsession

I ask myself all these questions but I can't answer them anymore I want to know what I can believe in why I have to feel so unsure alter my ways can you arrange the chaos in me (all I want is) : to ease up the pain I tried it all in vain all in vain something is buzzing around in my head I am uptight and tense something that needs all my attention and it nearly drives me mad do what I tell you you've got to do it now don't let them see it they'll only take it away follow all my rules without them you are nothing don't try to hide it all we will always see through you I gotta give it up

I can't take any more

THE GREY IN WHITE

Fallin´

darkness surrounds me and I can't hear a sound there's only my breathing I recognize it now
that soon I'll drift away in my own space
where we can shut ourselves away

(I'm) falling thru this wonderful place and I I fly like a feather in this beautiful way tonight hiding in this space for me it's a release it takes me out of here so I can know relief

THE GREY IN WHITE

Can't Escape

I need you now

I put you inside of me now take away all my misery feel so alive

I get dizzy and it's gettin' dark around me now I'm back here face down on the floor

I can hardly breath nothing to deplore

I feel so sick but that is the price for the choice I've made can't escape from you you hold me close can't keep my eyes off you (can't stop thinking about you) you don't let me fall

I will give you all you make me fly (you make me high) you take me high (you let me fly) and I will die what have I done to myself all these mistakes were not my fate now it's too late but what does life mean when you turn away from me

I can't escape from you, you hold me close can't keep my eyes off you, and everytime when you are gone

I will still be missing you, I can't escape from you you hold me close, can't stop thinking about you and everytime when you are gone, I still will be missing ...

THE GREY IN WHITE

I don't want that I'm all alone in that room everything hurts and I'm counting my bruises feel ashamed and guilty I can't take it anymore what have you done to me what was it for you walk right through the door

see me lying on the floor oh I don't want that please I don't want that don't keep touching me
I feel so damn dirty no I don't want this down in my soul you opened a hole where I hide to escape from all the shame you've trapped me in no I can't laugh anymore you take all my zest for life away those eyes how they penetrate these hands on my neck how they dominate disgusting smell of that ruthless body I never get rid of I feel so filthy

no I don't want this (No)

THE GREY IN WHITE

with you just for you I'm on my way the path is not dark nor grey

I keep a feeling deep inside that lets me walk with a smile without a doubt someone like you is so hard to find one of a kind

I want to be with you so I am waiting

I want to be with you till time is ending

I want to be with you you

I wanna be with you

I want to be with you now no more waiting

I'm gonna hold you close till time starts ending

I want to be with you you you you

I'm on my way to you the thought of you lifts me up right into the sky there is no mountain too high to climb and I leave everything behind that's what I do

you're one of a kind

THE GREY IN WHITE

Curtain

no matter what you see no matter what you feel inside your egoistic way of life leaves no room for empathy averted eyes makes it easy reality is what you ignore you don't wanna know what's going on hey.... time you start to think about what's wrong what's right the truth is so much more important time you start to think about and open your eyes see what's behind the curtain the truth you don't care about unless it directly affects you that's not the correct point of view it's just you who you betray caught in the jaded game you play it leads you to be bleak inside so leave your soiled past behind all the shards of your broken lies

you wonder why your time's spent alone now don't complain when I realize
now I realize

take me home

I look in my soul and I see the bad person I'm not supposed to be tears running down for things that I've have done I'm not very proud
of what I've become
am I cold inside
am I cold as ice

please take me home to the place I belong let the rain wash away all the pain of yesterday for things that I've have done

THE GREY IN WHITE

you lift me up

If it all seems pointless and I'm about to crash

If I can't see anymore sunshine

I can put my head on your chest and you embrace me you can feel when I'm so weary you can see when I am so weak then you come and surround me with your love your energy when you embrace me

than I can reach higher places where I want to be

you lift me up

higher places to more than I can be (I'm more than I can be)
